Tregothnan is located on a hill overlooking an inlet of the Carrick Roads. Drawing on almost 200 years of experience in growing Camellias, since 2005 the Tregothnan Estate has been producing fine teas. They were the first to do so in England. We have selected the very best of the Tregothnan range for you to try. Hand-picked in our unique micro-climate under the watchful eye of the estates own bees, these are the best teas Britain has to offer.
